

AUGUST 2022 £4.99

THE WORLD OF INTERIORS

33. ILWAD GABOSE is a UK based abstract artist, her artwork takes inspiration from the human behaviour and the depths of the human unconscious mind. This piece 'Modern abstract Nightingale' demonstrates the hidden self story covered by the many layers of the conditioned self. See more on www.imgabose.com or follow @ilwadgabose on Instagram.

34. ELINA COLUMBA is an abstract artist whose artworks are inspired mostly by travelling. She believes art can add the right energy to any space and make you feel better. You can add the right mood, or joy, or some fresh energy into your space and your life. Visit elinacolumba.com or follow @elina_columba_paintings on Instagram.

35. MELINDA BRAATHEN is a Los Angeles-based painter. Braathen seamlessly transitions between elements of skillful figuration and expressively ambient abstraction. Her work melds close observation of nature and human dynamics with theatricality and acute emotional attunement. Visit melindabraathen.com or follow @melindabraathen on Instagram.

36. COLLEEN SHAW is a painter and maker of ceramic and textile sculptural pieces. Living in the Lincolnshire countryside she finds inspiration in nature and animals. The paintings evolve through layering colours and using sgraffito mark making techniques. Her colourful and dynamic work can be viewed at www.colleenshaw.co.uk and follow @colleenshaw on Instagram.

37. Based in New York, VICTORIA JASP renders original artistic arrangements and compositions inspired by collective memory, magical adventures and time. Each unique piece tells its own story. Work can be purchased directly from the studio and international shipping is available. Pictured is Neval II, mixed media on canvas, 8" x 10". Visit victoriajasp.com or email jaspvictoria@gmail.com to find out more.

38. CIA KRISTIINA DESIGN is an abstract artist from Finland. She loves to create powerful and emotional works. Strong contrasts, hints of gold as well as bold tones and lines create a unity that captures the gaze even longer. Different emotional states serve as a great inspiration to create new touching art. Follow @ciakristiina.design on Instagram to find out more.

39. DR. OWEN JOHNSON is a Toronto based artist, born near Melbourne, Australia. He completed a Bachelors of Arts at the Australian National University and a Ph.D. at the Royal College of Art, London. Johnson has recently been the studio head of the Glass Studio at Sheridan College, near Toronto, Canada. Visit www.owenjohnsonart.com and follow @owenjohnsonart on Instagram.

40. LUCILLE CLERC is a French artist based in London. She graduated from Central Saint Martins with an MA in Communication Design. She works within the field of editorial design and illustration. A lot of her personal work is inspired by London's architecture and the relationship between nature and urbanization. Her work is handcrafted from drawing to screen-printing which allows her to create large scale compositions, architectural portraits of her favourite places exploring their past and present lives. Visit www.lucilleclerc.com and follow @lucille_clerc on Instagram.

41. STEPHANIE CIME is a Belgian artist based in Stalhille near Bruges, Belgium. Her work ranges from small intimistic drawings to canvases up to 3 m². The colours, structures and shapes in her vibrant abstract paintings are a reflection of a vivid inner world. Visit www.stephaniecime.com and follow @artbycime on Instagram.

42. RAY RANKINE's mixed media abstract compositions explore colours and textures inspired by found material and photography. The addition of collage and text from various sources creates marks which, though sometimes distorted in the painting process, suggest a mood or an extra layer of interpretation. Visit www.rayrankine.art and follow @rayrankineart on Instagram.

43. Scandinavian based versatile artist ROSA M. LEONORE is a talented artist/illustrator. Powerful colours, nature motives and a touch of femininity is seen in her beautiful artwork. Art prints, detail photography and lovely home articles are available in her online stores. Visit www.rosa-leonore.com and follow @rosamleonore on Instagram.

44. SARAH SMITH WATERCOLOUR is an Australian artist based in Orange, New South Wales. Previously a Pharmacist, she is largely self-taught, and draws inspiration from even the simplest of creatures, living things or everyday objects. Through her detailed watercolour style featuring intricate brushwork, Sarah attempts to create bright, fun and light pieces that magnify the beauty and simplicity of her subject matter that may otherwise go unseen or overlooked. Her first solo exhibition titled, 'Noosa', will be held at The Uralla Gallery, New South Wales, Australia, opening night Friday 22nd July 2022. Visit www.sarahwatercolour.com and follow @sarahsmithwatercolour on Instagram.

45. ANNE TEMPLE is a self-taught oil painter based in the coastal town of Norfolk, VA. Her work is described as vibrant yet soothing, colourful, fresh and approachable. Inspiration from everyday life infuses all her various styles and subjects. Her works are available at www.annetemple.com and you can follow @annetemplestudio on Instagram.

46. ANNIE MONCREIFF is an Australian artist. Her expressive, evocative land and seascapes feature gestural and textured mark making. Drawn primarily from the imagination, her semi-abstract, mixed-media pieces are inspired by childhood memories of far-flung places. Pictured is 'The Citadel'. Commissions welcomed. Follow @anniemoncreiffcreative on Instagram.