THE WORLD OF

INTERIORS

12. ALEXANDRA KAUKA is a European artist, who later refined her technique at NY' Art Students League. She has a passion for gentle abstraction of a magical nature. Her art shows places that are beautiful and meditative, imaginary worlds, but beyond abstraction, one feels and sees reality. Some methods are very scientific, resulting in amazing layered effects, truly organic and random in nature. Pictured is "Windmills of your mind" alcohol ink, resin 40" X 60". 13. The abstract paintings of BARBARA ZEISELMEIER are explorations and experiments. They evolve in a dialogue between intuition and calculation. The multiple layers create a feeling of depth, visible and hidden parts invite the observers to find their own stories in the painting. See more on www.barbara-zeiselmeier.de or follow @zeibarcolor on Instagram.

14. MARY CATHERINE SOLBERG incorporates aspects of religious iconography, classical realism and her own unique style to create large scale mixed media paintings she refers to as "Everyday Icons". These Icon portraits focus on a single character to capture fleeting moments of triumph, transition, struggle and enlightenment. Discover more at www.marycatherinesolberg.com and follow @driftlessicons on Instagram.

15. MEGAN ASHMAN is a mixed media painter and collage artist. As a surrealist, Megan's works of art are invoked by the unconscious. She uses a myriad of materials, such as inks, paints, paper, and found objects. Discover more of her artwork at www.meganashmanart.com and follow @meganashmanart on Instagram.

16. EMMA CHALLACOMBE's vibrant paintings combine bold colour and tactile brushstrokes. Sumptuous impasto, pen and ink intertwine to create expressive portraits, florals and abstract works. Visit www.emmachallacombe.co.uk to purchase original artwork or commission a portrait and follow @emmachallart on Instagram.

17. RAY RANKINE's mixed media abstract compositions explore colours and textures inspired by found material. The addition of collage or sometimes text, from various sources, creates marks which, though often distorted in the painting process, suggest a mood or an extra layer of interpretation. Visit www.rayrankine.art and follow @rayrankineart on Instagram.

18. Australian eco-artist LEAH JUSTYCE BVA ppop culture portraits are deeper than the image you see. Her chosen subjects have a subconscious connection that needs to come to the surface to be healed. Her use of roses is also symbolic to her journey, however, to the viewer her artwork will trigger experiences and memories that are personal to them. 19. In this series titled 'Dancing' artist FENG BIN paints dancing partners that appear in an abstract and blurred composition, symbolising the relationship and perception between oneself and others. The act of dancing alludes to desire and physical intimacy, yet simultaneously suggests feelings of isolation and alienation from each other. The expression and embellishment of the figures creates an atmosphere juxtaposing simplicity with complexity. For more information about Feng Bin and his work, contact Allison Thompson of AT Art and Interiors on www.allisonthompsonstudio.com and follow @atartinteriors on Instagram.

20. ANNE TEMPLE is a self-taught oil painter based in the coastal town of Norfolk, VA. Her work is described as vibrant yet soothing, colourful, fresh and approachable. Inspiration from everyday life infuses all her various styles and subjects. Her works are available at www.annetemple.com and you can follow @annetemplestudio on Instagram.

21. STEVEN MILLER is an abstract artist based in New York, whose work surrounds the interplay of colour, form, and concepts that appear simple, but are more complex in reality. He has displayed his vibrant paintings worldwide. To see his stunning collection, visit www.stevenwmiller.com and follow @smillernyc on Instagram.

22. STEPHANIE CIME is a Belgian artist based in Stalhille near Bruges, Belgium. Her work ranges from small intimistic drawings to canvases up to 3 m<sup>2</sup>. The colours, structures and shapes in her vibrant abstract paintings are a reflection of a vivid inner world.
